MEMORANDUM FOR

SUBJECT

Foreign Service Officer Recruitment Sources

In one of our recent discussions I referred to certain data, obtained from the State Department, concerning the colleges and universities from which Foreign Service Officers are recruited. Since this subject has relevance to your study of the Career Training Program, I am summarizing in the following paragraphs information covering the periods 1957-1962 and 1963-1965, a total of about 8½ years.

I. WSO's Appointed 1957-1962

In early 1964 the College Relations Staff of the Department of State prepared a study of the schools from which FSO's were recruited over a 5½ year period during 1957-1962. A total of 926 officers were appointed during this period, drawn from 204 colleges and universities in the U.S. plus one in Canada. Ten schools stand out as the most prominent sources:

	Morvard 60 6.5%
	California 56
	Princeton 44.8%
	Yale 4.4%
	Georgetown 28 3.0%
	Stanford 23
	Dartmouth 22
	Columbia 21 2.3%
	Michigan 15
	Minnesota 15 1.6%
,
	Total 325 35.1%

An additional 26 schools were important contributors, as follows:

-		•
	Virginia Duke	7
	Northwestern 12 Mayerford	7
	Wisconsin 11 Michigan State	7
,	Brown 11 Rochester	7
	Plorida 11 Swarthmore	7
	Chicago 10 Texas	7
	Washington 10 Tufts	7
	Momilton 9 Williams	7
	Oberlin Colgate	6
	Smith Gornell	6
	Onio State 8 Fordham	6
	Pennsylvania 8 North Carolina	.6
	CONY St. John's (NY)	6
٠
-	Total 21	15
	AUGUA 21	43

The other 383 officers appointed in this period represented a broad range of 169 schools, and 3 were appointed who were not college graduates. The total number of 926 appointed during this period represented, in 1964, 25% of the total FSO strength:

II. ESO's Appointed 1963-65

A sampling was conducted to ascertain the schools from which FSO's were appointed during the 3-year period 1953-65. A total of 188 were reviewed. They came from 99 schools in the U.S. plus one each from Canada and Ireland. The ten leading sources were:
